

EVE DRESS STANDARDS

Burswood Management reserves the right to refuse entry to any person considered unsuitably attired.

The following dress is considered unacceptable:

- Ripped, torn or soiled clothing
- T-shirts with offensive designs/words
- Flannelette shirts
- Camouflage clothing
- Male singlets and tank-tops
- "Hoodies" (hooded jumpers or t-shirts)
- Shorts (excluding $\frac{3}{4}$ pants on Sundays only)
- Active sporting attire and active sports shoes (including branded urban wear)
- Excessively revealing clothing
- Manual work clothing or boots (including all steel cap boots)
- Fancy dress, hats, caps or bandannas (exemptions apply for specific events and functions)
- Thongs, sneakers, joggers, runners, beach sandals, massage sandals, unclean or untidy footwear

The dress standard for Eve is neat and smart; customers must be clean, neat and tidy at all times.

For further information, visit eveclub.com.au.

